London's best picnic hampers

Eating outside can still be decadent. Here, we've picked eight of the best pre-packed picnics to tuck into this summer.

Panzer's Deluxe Picnic with Charcuterie

£89

North Londoners have been enjoying Panzer's picnics since the 1940s. Now delivering nationwide, the for-to Hessian bag includes an artisan charcuterie plate and bottle of wine alongside other alfresco treats.

Stein's at Home Picnic Box

£55

Unsurprisingly, for a picnic by Rick Stein, this hamper has a Cornish theme – from miniature Cornish pasties to clotted cream shortbread. It comes in a jute bag, and you can add on a 12-plate picnic set for an extra £40.

THE EDIT - PICNIC HAMPERS

D'Ambrosi Chelsea

£35

This prix fixe picnic is from the new London outpost of a popular Cotswolds deli. It includes a rotisserie chicken, jalapeno sauce, three veg dishes, and a dessert – plus, everything's made to order.

Sette Picnic

£105

Italian food practically begs to be eaten outside, which is why we love this Italian-inspired picnic from Sette. Each is packed with goodies such as burrata d'anuria, focaccia, and Italian cakes, plus an organic cotton rug and all the tableware you need.
